

August 6, 2015

For more information:
NDDOT Communications (701) 328-4444

NDDOT receives Telly Award for Liberty Memorial Bridge documentary

The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) is the recipient of a bronze Telly Award for their video documentary production entitled "Liberty Memorial Bridge; Proudly Honoring Veterans since World War I."

The documentary chronicles the bridges early history spanning over 80 years and explains how it served and connected the communities of Bismarck and Mandan for decades until the construction of the new Liberty Memorial Bridge and then demolition of the historic bridge.

The Telly Awards is the premier award program honoring outstanding local, regional, and cable TV commercials and programs, the finest video and film productions, and online commercials, video and films.

"With nearly 12,000 entries from all 50 states and numerous countries, this is truly an honor," said NDDOT Director, Grant Levi. "This production is a beautiful depiction of how important the bridge was to transportation at the time it was built as well as how revered it was by our citizens."

Winners of this prestigious award represent the best work of the most respected advertising agencies, production companies, television stations, cable operators, and corporate video departments in the world.

"Our mission is to honor the very best in film and video," said Linda Day, Executive Director of the Telly Awards. "NDDOT's accomplishment illustrates their creativity, skill, and dedication to their craft and serves as a testament to great film and video production."

Anyone wishing to receive a copy of the Liberty Memorial Bridge DVD can call NDDOT at (701) 328-4412 for more information.